

Introduction

The protection of your personal data is a matter of great importance to us and a high priority for our company. Adherence to these legal stipulations is a matter of course for us.

The following information provides an overview of how we process your personal data and your rights under data protection law.

1. Who is responsible for data processing?

Responsible for data processing is the Schaeffler AG and all its subsidiaries, in which the Schaeffler AG holds a direct or indirect majority stake (Schaeffler Group).

Schaeffler AG
Industriestraße 1-3
91074 Herzogenaurach (Germany)

Tel.: +49 9132 82-0
Fax: +49 9132 82-49 50
E-Mail: info.de@schaeffler.com

You can contact our company's data protection officer at:

Schaeffler AG
Data protection officer
Industriestraße 1-3
91074 Herzogenaurach (Germany)

Tel.: +49 9132 82 1476
Fax: +49 9132 82-5901
E-Mail: data-privacy@schaeffler.com

2. For what purpose do we process your data (purpose of processing) and what is the legal basis for this?

We process your personal data in accordance with the terms of the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG):

Subject to your consent (article 6, paragraph 1a of the GDPR)

If you have given your consent for us to process personal data for specific purposes, it is lawful for us to process these data based on this consent. A declaration of consent that has been made can be revoked at any time. Please note that this revocation only applies for the future. Data processing that took place prior to the revocation remains unaffected.

As part of the weighing of interests (article 6, paragraph 1f of the GDPR)

If necessary, we will process your data for the purpose of protecting our own legitimate interests or those of third parties. Our legitimate interests include the following in particular:

- Processing for marketing purposes

3. What data relating to me will be processed?

We will process the following data or data categories relating to you:

- Contact data

4. From what sources do my data originate?

We have received your data from you personally.

5. Who can access my data?

Within the Schaeffler Group, your data are accessible to those parties who require access to them according to the so-called "Least Privilege" principle (assignment of rights of use in the smallest possible scope) and the need-to-know principle (knowledge of data only when required). Service providers and vicarious agents employed by us may receive data from us for these purposes if this is necessary, it is required by law, you have given your consent, or processors commissioned by us requires that the specifications of the GDPR and the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG) will be observed. Under these prerequisites, recipients of personal data can include the following:

- Responsible employees of Schaeffler from the marketing and communication department
- Provider for the administration of the contact data

6. Are data transferred to third-party countries or international organizations?

The transfer of data to countries outside of the EU/EEA (so-called "third-party countries") only takes place when necessary or legally proscribed, when you have given us your consent, or as part of the processing of an order. If service providers in third-party countries are employed, they are obliged to confirm that they will observe the European level of data security by agreeing in writing to the EU's standard contractual clauses.

7. How long will my data be stored?

We will process and store your personal data for as long as this is necessary for the respective purpose. If your data are no longer required or do you have object to the data processing, they will be deleted regularly after 6 Month, unless legal obligations to preserve records prevent this deletion

8. Am I under obligation to provide data?

As part of the conclusion of contracts, you are obliged to provide such personal data as are necessary to justify, implement, and terminate the contract and fulfill the obligations arising from it, or such personal data as Schaeffler is obliged to record. Without these data, no contracts can be concluded with Schaeffler.

9. What data protection rights do I have?

You have the right to the following:

- Information regarding your personal data that have been processed in accordance with article 15 of the GDPR
- Correction of incorrect personal data according to article 16 of the GDPR
- Deletion of your personal data according to article 17 of the GDPR
- Restriction of data processing according to article 18 of the GDPR
- Objection according to article 21 of the GDPR
- Data portability according to article 20 of the GDPR

The restrictions specified in §§ 34 and 35 of the German Federal Data Protection Act / BDSG apply to the right to information and the right to deletion. You additionally have the right to complain to the supervisory authority for data protection according to article 77 of the GDPR in conjunction with § 19 of the German Federal Data Protection Act / BDSG.

10. To what extent are decisions made automatically?

Automated decisions are decisions that are made exclusively by a machine, without evaluation by a natural person. We generally do not use any automated decision-making systems in accordance with article 22 of the GDPR. Should we use such systems in individual cases, we will inform you of this separately provided that this is legally required and if necessary obtain your prior consent.

11. Does “profiling” take place?

“Profiling” refers to any kind of automated processing of personal data for the purpose of analyzing or predicting the working performance, financial status, health, personal preferences, interests, reliability, conduct, location, or relocation of a natural person. Schaeffler generally does not use “profiling”. Should we use such systems in individual cases, we will inform you of this separately provided that this is legally required and if necessary obtain your prior consent.